

Ahmadis' overly long days at shelters

Date : 20th June 2018

Children's voice: Barahim, a 9-year-old boy who lives with his parents at Wisma Transito in Mataram, West Nusa Tenggara, holds up the letter he has written to President Joko "Jokowi" Widodo appealing to him to allow displaced Ahmadi families to return to Ketapang village after living in the shelters for 12 years. (JP/Panca Nugraha) Wisma Transito was designed as a transit center for local...

Read original post HERE.